A Statement of Accomplishment acknowledged that a Stanford Online course offered through Lagunita was completed with a passing grade by a particular participant. Get answers and help in the forums. You can download the paper by clicking the button above. Please join our email list to stay informed of the latest offerings. While the Lagunita platform has been retired, we offer many other platforms for extended education. Stanford released the first open source version of the edX platform, Open edX, in June 2013. This Statement of Accomplishment serves as verification of the successful completion of the course. Stanford Online used Open edX technology to offer more than 200 free and open online courses on the Lagunita platform to more than 10 million learners in 190 countries. Loading... Information for Learners Learners who were actively engaged with the platform, as well as anyone who had been issued a Statement of Accomplishment, were notified throughout the beginning of 2020 that the Lagunita platform was closing. Faculty can find answers to many frequently asked questions here. Information for Stanford Faculty The Stanford Center for Professional Development works with Stanford faculty to extend their teaching and research to a global audience through online and in-person learning opportunities. Most courses on Lagunita offered the ability to earn a Statement of Accomplishment, based on one's overall grade in the course. These learners were invited to download any course content and Statements of Accomplishments by March 31, 2020. We named our instance of the Open edX platform Lagunita, after the name of a cherished lake bed on the Stanford campus, a favorite gathering place of students. Answers to many frequently asked questions for learners prior to the Lagunita retirement were available on our FAQ page.
